

A Call to Stand Apart

CHAPTERS

Beginnings; Jesus as a Child and Young Adult

(pages 13-18)

1&2

1. When was the promise made that Jesus would come as our Savior?
2. _____ and _____ are no wider apart today than when shepherds heard the angels' songs.
3. Unscramble the words in parentheses: "Each of us now, as the _____ (hpesrehsd) then, is the _____ (tcboje) of God's most _____ (tnenies) _____ (evlo) and _____ (tsetrein)."
4. True or False. Jesus went through the ultimate humiliation of being born with human flesh, and weakened by millennia of sin.
5. As Jesus studied God's word, what did he discover about the standards of society and the standards of God? _____
6. The _____ of _____ became the reason for everything Jesus did that was different from the family's customs.
7. With whom did Jesus' brothers side -- the rabbis or Jesus?
8. Many of Jesus' peers avoided Him because they felt _____ by His pure life.
9. What did Jesus do during his happiest hours?
10. What were some of the things Jesus did as a child?
  - a. spoke kind words of encouragement to sick, oppressed, and discouraged people
  - b. gave His own lunch to the hungry
  - c. helped suffering people and suffering animals
  - d. all of the above